

CODE OF CONDUCT

In order to provide an enjoyable entertainment experience for all guests, as a visitor to Xscape Theatre's property, please be courteous to those around you and refrain from disruptive behaviors, including but not limited to the following:

- Loitering anywhere on the property, inside or outside. You must have a valid ticket for a current showing to remain on premises.
- Bringing in outside food or beverages.
- Operating mobile devices that emit distracting light or sound that may disrupt other patrons.
- Repeatedly changing of seats or excessive entry and re-entry of any auditorium – “Hopping” or switching auditoriums without prior management approval is disruptive to others and illegal.
- Possessing and/or using a recording device, audio or video.
- Using obscene or offensive language and gestures.
- Being intoxicated or under the influence of illegal drugs.
- Possessing alcohol not purchased on Xscape Theatres property or consuming outside of the designated areas or by guests under the age of 21.
- Defacing any Xscape Theatres Property inside or outside.
- Fighting, engaging in intimidating, disorderly or disruptive behavior.
- Carrying or displaying weapons of any kind, real or toy.
- Failing to be fully clothed and wearing appropriate attire.
- Wearing apparel with obscene or offensive language and/or images which is likely to provoke a disturbance or conflict.
- Wearing a mask or hood that obscures the face.

Violation of any of these rules could result with Criminal Trespassing in Violation of Ohio Revised Code 2911.21
